Heavenly Father, Love has been your richest and greatest gift to this world. Love between a man and a woman which matures into marriage. Today, we celebrate that love for the joy of this occasion. We thank you for your presence here and now and at all times. Protect, guide and bless Mark and April and everyone present here. We ask that you bless them, protect them, and fill their lives with your wisdom. We pray that our Lester and April would continually desire to be a heavenly mate. May they be determined to make you the center of their home. Surround us with your love now and always. This we pray, in Jesus name, Amen.

(Share comments about the video)

Today calls for a grand celebration and it is my distinct pleasure to introduce them to you for the very first time as husband and wife. So without further ado, let us all rise and give our warmest welcome to Mr. And Mrs. Mark Lester Lumban

Couple Enters

Thank you very much. Truly, this momentous event marks a beautiful milestone of two hearts beginning a beautiful lifelong commitment. Congratulations April and Lester and best wishes to both of you. We pray for you to be blessed with a long and happy life together with your future family.

Anyway, I hope everyone's settled. At this point, let me now call on stage April and Lester's close friends and let's set this stage ablaze with a very special dance number. Oh wait, kasama nga pala ako. Let me just change my hosting hat to my dancing hat. Sasayaw lang kami guys. Let's go guys!

VII. Mother and Daughter Dance

I hope everyone's settled. I know all of you will agree with me that one of the parent's dreams is to see the wedding of their children. I am sure April and Lester's parents are as equally happy as them. And as many of us already know, the couple's fathers are not with us here physically to grace us with the traditional Father and Daughter Dance. But I believe, and I am also certain that our couple and our couple's families also believe that they are here with us in mind and in spirit. Now, to grace us with the very special mother and daughter as well as the mother and groom dance, let me call on stage Tita Lerma with her lovely daughter, our very own bride: April. As well as our very handsome Groom, Mr. Lester Lumban together with his dearest mother, Mrs. Ursula Lumban.

Dance for 15 Seconds

Ladies and Gentlemen, a round of applause for the mothers of our bride and groom. And now, our dearest mothers will give the hands of both their son and daughter for. Transition to:

VIII. Couple's First Dance

Tonight is indeed a special night, and will be forever etched in the memory of our beloved couple. On this joyful beginning, what could be more fitting than to celebrate it with their first dance. As a wedding tradition, let us welcome Mark and April on the dance floor for their first dance as they dance their hearts away.

After 1 minute: Guests may now send their wishes by pinning bills on the couple's dresses. Ladies and gentleman, find your purses and wallets. It's now time for our money dance where you will get your chance to financially bless our couple.

Our maid of honors, best man and coordinators will be standing here to put the sash on the couple. You may approach them and they will hand you envelopes and safety pins where you can put 500 or 1000 peso bills. You can attach the envelopes to the sash the couple is wearing.

After the dance: Life may get a little offbeat for the couple and they may miss a step or two, but their hearts will always beat harmoniously for each other. Let's give another round of applause for Mark and April! And for those who blessed them with peso bills, thank you for your generosity. That will indeed go a long way for the couple.

IX. Cake Cutting and Wine Toast

Alright! As we all know guys, in every wedding reception, there is always the cutting of the wedding cake which actually symbolizes the couple's shared future and their life as one and maybe sprinkled with love and sweetness just like the cake. So may I request Mark and April to proceed to the cake's table.

Mark and April as now husband and wife will put their hands together to slice the cake. The two hands moving as one with one purpose symbolizes that the two will work in unity to reach common goals for their shared future and their life together as one. The couple will then share the cake with each other. This symbolizes their willingness to fulfill each other's needs, creating a bond so simple yet so strong!

Now, to symbolize and celebrate the blending of your two lives into one. This ceremony represents your two individual lives, now intertwined; combined like the two glasses of wine into one single life. The drinking of the combined wine signifies the commitment you now make to live your lives as one family.

As with a glass of wine, one of you may find it sweet, the other perhaps dry or somehow different. Let the drink you share today serve as a reminder that although you may perceive things very differently, being right is never more important than being happy. With this space that you give each other, always putting your commitment to love and honor one another first, your lives together will grow deeper, richer and greatly satisfying, like a rare and fine wine.

After the Ceremony: Now that the cake has been served and the wine has been drunk let us seal it with a sweet kiss. Mark and April, if you could just give our guests' request please. Guys, help me out here, let's all shout KISS!

X. First Game

Ladies and gentlemen, we are now halfway through the program. I know most of you must already be hungry and are looking forward to dinner. But before we head on and stuff ourselves with a sumptuous feast that the couple has prepared for us, let's first test how well you know Mark and April through this Game we will play and is called: The Bride or the Groom?

Don't worry guys, this is not rocket science and you don't need to guess specific dates or birthdays! So don't be pressured because the rules are very simple. On each of your tables, you will see two sticks with the words Bride or Groom in it.

I will ask a series of questions and in each question, a member from the table will be a representative and answer the question. You just need to choose if it's the Groom or if it's the bride. The most exciting part is, the table who wins the game gets the chance to be the first to approach the buffet dinner table. So are you guys ready?

I was just kidding guys. I believe the couple has prepared a simple token for those who will win the game. Am I right?

GAME

Thank you everyone for your participation. Goes to show how well you know our couple.

We have not reached halfway of the program yet but I'm pretty sure that some of us are already famished. Since there are still a lot of exciting activities in store for us, we need the energy to carry out all these tasks later.

At this point, to maintain order, the coordinators will approach your table after saying grace before meals or the prayer and the guests from that table will be requested to proceed to the location of the couple for a photo op. Right after that, they can line up at the buffet counter to get their dinner. Please wait for the coordinators to approach your table.

XI. Grace Before Meals

Now, let's call on _____ to lead us into prayer and to say grace before meals.

Lord God, Creator of the universe, Father of us all, we have gathered here around this dinner table to celebrate the love and commitment that have united Lester and April in a wonderful bond of marriage.

Bless, Father, this food that we are about to receive with grateful hearts as a sign of your continuous bounty and providence. May your generous blessing descend upon this newly married couple, their families and friends present here at this joyful banquet.

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus our Lord, our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God forever and ever. Amen.

XII. Dinner

XIII. Song Number

Ladies and Gentlemen, as you are enjoying your dinner, let me serenade you with a medley of love songs. Maestro, music please

XIV. Messages

I know you have written your messages for the couple but let us hear some of the most important people in Lester and April's lives.

A. God Parents

In all senses of the word, Godparents are guardians of the faith. The bride and groom should treat this role not merely as a gift givers during nuptials, but also co-sharers to the promise of a lifetime of christian commitment. And for the Godparents who will give their message to the couple, let's welcome Mr. Jonas Erwin Mediano and Mrs. Lalaine Paniergo

After the message

Thank you for your wisdom Sir Jonas and Ms. Lalaine. a big hand for them please.

B. Friends

A wedding brings two people and their friends together. It refreshes the ties and takes friendships to another level. Now, we would like to proceed with the messages from Lester and April's friends. These are the people who literally witnessed the romance between the groom and the bride blossom into a serious relationship. May we call on _ and share with us what they know about the couple.

After the message

Thank you dear friends by indulging us with your inspirational stories with the couple.

Before we get too emotional by the messages for our couple. Why don't we play a game? Do you guys want to play?

XV. 2nd Game: Rock Paper Scissors

Alright. This is exciting. But please pay attention to me first as I give you the mechanics of our second game. Prior to us getting here, our dear coordinators have already set up the game for us. They have placed a piece of paper beneath each and every chair so I want all of you to grab on that piece of paper and hold on to it. Out of these pieces of paper, there are 3 special and unique pieces of paper that have very important roles. Right now, we want to know first those who have gotten the special paper. Will you please raise your hand? Alright. So if you are one of these paper holders, you should be holding 2 pieces of paper that were glued side by side. I want you to separate the paper, hold on to the special paper, keep it safe and hidden and only use the regular paper for the game.

As for the rest, please listen carefully for the next set of instructions. This game is very simple yet very popular and fun. Your first job is to find an opponent from your table and battle with Rock Paper Scissors. It's best of one only so the losing person will now then give his or her piece of paper to the winning person. The winning person then finds a new opponent who is also a winner from your table or another table. Then the same rule continues. The person who gathers the most number of papers wins the game.

GAME

Congratulations to all our winners. You did a very good job everyone!

XVI. Message from the maid of honor

I believe everyone is settled. Now, to continue the messages for our lovely couple, let's now call on Janelle who assisted our bride in all her needs to give her message.

Thank you, Janelle for that heartfelt message

XVII. Best Man's Toast

This time, let's fill our glasses with any drink that we can get and join the best man in his message for the couple followed by the symbolic wine toast. Let's now call on stage Mr. Marlon Lumban

Let's give our best man a nice hand for a great toast!

XVIII. Message from Parents

It is said that our parents are our first teachers, having raised us patiently from childhood to adulthood. They have been our source of comfort, support and inspiration. Lester and April are truly blessed with such wonderful parents. Now, to give their warmest messages to our couple, let me call on the Mothers of the Couple to say a few words of wisdom and best wishes to our newlyweds. Let's start with the Groom's Mother, Mrs. Ursula Lumban and then followed by the Bride's Mother, Mrs. Lerma Bacur

Thank you dearest moms for those heartfelt, wonderful and meaningful speeches.

XIX. Bouquet

Okay now, let us have some fun because it is time for the traditional bouquet toss. At this point, we would like to request all the single ladies to please come forward for the bouquet throw. We would also like to request the bride to come forward and take her place center stage.

Wait for all the ladies to come forward

Ladies, kindly take your place behind the bride and be prepared to catch the bouquet. It is said that whoever will catch the bouquet will soon be the next bride. So is everyone in?

Ready when you are at the count of three, the bride will throw her bouquet. Now, I would like to ask the help of our dear audience and guests to join me in counting. Are you guys ready?

Ready when you are ladies, let us now do the countdown: One, two, three!

After catching:

May I request for the lucky lady who was able to catch the bouquet to please come forward.

What's your name Miss and where are you from?

Alright! Let us give a big hand to Miss____. Please have a seat beside the bride and in a moment, we shall find your match in the garter toss.

XX. Retrieval of Garter

Before we go on with the garter toss, Lester will have to retrieve first the garther from his lovely wife, April. So may we request the groom and the bride to please come center stage and do the garter retrieval ritual.

Ladies and gentlemen, the groom will now retrieve the garter from the bride.

There you have it ladies and gents, the groom was finally able to retrieve the garter. Let's give them a big hand!

Alright!, it's now the gentlemen's turn and will now do the garter toss. May I request all single men to please come forward for the garter toss.

Gentlemen, please take your place behind the groom and be ready to catch the garter. So is everyone ready? At the count of three, the groom will throw the garter and again, we request the audience to participate in the countdown.

Okay, ready when you are guys. One, two, three! Off it goes!

XXI. Match Making

May I request for the gentleman with the quick hand who now has in his possession the garter. Please come forward and take your place beside the lady who has the bouquet.

Congratulations Sir. May I have your name please?

Thank you Mr_. Friends, let's give this gentleman a big hand.

Now that we have already found a perfect match. The next bride and groom to be in the future, it is time for another ritual. The gentleman who got the garter is to put it on the lady who caught the bouquet. At this point, we would like to request Ms_. to please have a seat while Mr_. will put the garter.

Ladies and gentlemen, Mr_. will now put the garter on Ms_.

There you have it ladies and gentlemen. Our new lovely pair and if it would not be too much to ask, we would like the gentleman to give the lady a kiss on the hand.

Thank you Mr. and Ms. Let us give them both a big hand.

At this point, we request that both of you remain on stage for the picture taking. The newlyweds will now pose with our lovely new pair.

Again, thank you Mr and Ms for your participation. You may now return to your seats.

April and Lester and their parents would like to express their sincere gratitude for all the help and support and for making this memorable occasion a great success. Prior to our reception here today at the Almond Garden, our lovely couple had already given the rest of the tokens to our distinguished sponsors, but now, we would like to request our Maid of Honor to distribute our tokens of gratitude to our ever dearest God Parents Mr. Jonas Mediano and Mrs. Lalaine Paniergo.

After token giving: Thank you so much for all of your support Sir and Madam.
